

How to reach Villa Quartara

Address: Via Romana della Castagna 11, Genoa, Italy
(Quarto dei Mille / Levante area of Genoa)

By Train

The nearest train station is Genova Quarto dei Mille, served by Trenitalia regional trains. Once you arrive:

- From the station, you can walk to the address in about 15 minutes (1 km), heading up Via Romana della Castagna.
- Alternatively, you can take an AMT bus (see below) for part of the route.

By Bus

The area is well served by AMT Genova buses.

- Lines 15, 16, 17, and 17I stop nearby.
- The recommended stops are: "Quarto" or "Via Carrara" (depending on the line), from which you can continue on foot (a 5–10-minute uphill walk).

Tip: Use the AMT Genova app or Google Maps to check real-time schedules and stop locations.

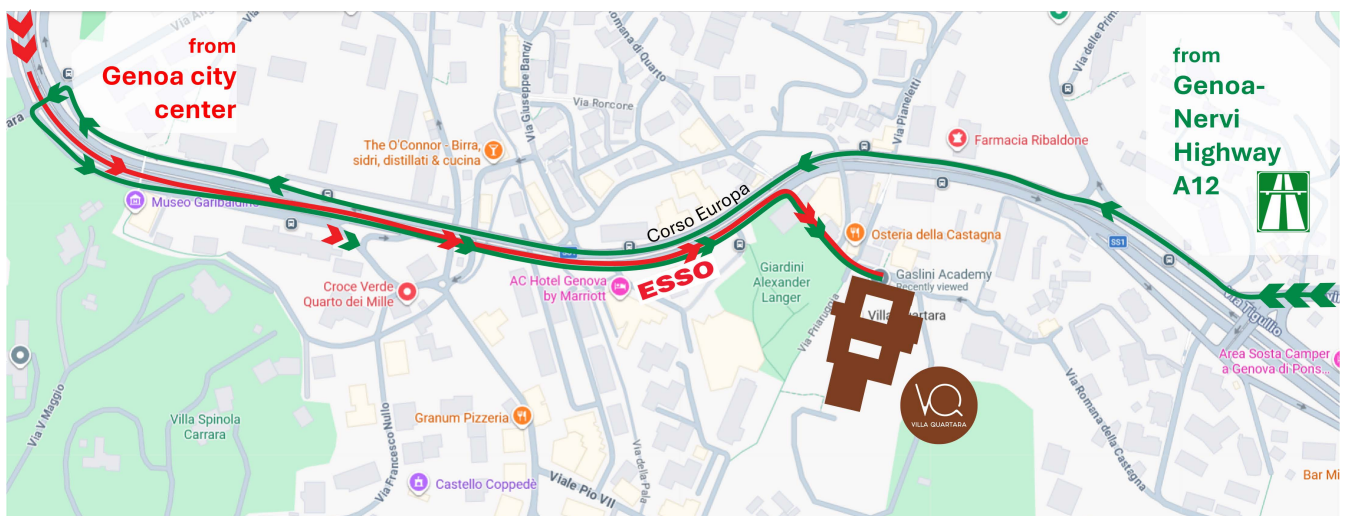

By Car

Coming from the Genoa-Nervi Highway

- Take the "Genova Nervi" highway exit
- After exiting the highway, merge onto Corso Europa heading toward the city center
- Keep to the right, take the first overpass you encounter after about 800 meters, turn left to reverse direction, and merge back onto Corso Europa toward Levante
- Pass the AC Hotel and the ESSO gas station
- After about 100 meters, turn right, following the signs for Via Romana della Castagna, then continue straight ahead and enter through the main gate.

From the city center:

- Drive along Corso Europa toward Levante
- Pass the AC Hotel and the ESSO gas station
- After about 100 meters, turn right and follow the signs for Via Romana della Castagna.
- Continue straight ahead until you reach the church and enter through the main gate, which you'll find slightly to your right.

From Genoa Airport (Cristoforo Colombo)

- Take the Volabus or shuttle to Stazione Genova Brignole.
- From there, take a regional train to Genova Quarto or a city bus (see section above).
